Empowering Individuals With DisABILITIES

The WOW Center provides access to opportunities and resources for adults with developmental disABILITIES and the communities that support them.

Since WOW opened in 1972, our commitment to Miami and our community remains unwavering. The adults with developmental disabilities who attend WOW are your co-workers, neighbors, family, and friends. We believe that making our community more inclusive is a collective effort.

Through our campus programs, therapies, WOW Work Experience, and community events, we empower adults with developmental disabilities and promote inclusion throughout our city.

You can play a vital role in this mission.

Our Programs

37 WOW Team Members
& 3 Independent Contractors

30% employed in community

8 different ethnicities | 78% minorities

99% of the individuals who attend WOW receive the Medicaid waiver through Medicaid.

21 - 76 Years of Age | 2:1 gender split

consumer satisfaction survey

99% participation

Do you feel you are treated with fairness, dignity, & respect at WOW?

Do team members answer your questions & listen to your concerns
when you need help?

Are you satisfied with the programs
&/or services at WOW?

Do you look forward to coming to WOW everyday?

By sponsoring WOW, you show your belief that Miami is home for the 8,600+ adults with developmental disabilities who deserve opportunities, inclusion, and a voice.

Your sponsorship is more than just support – it grants you membership to all things WOW, allowing you to witness Miami becoming more inclusive firsthand. Together, we can make a lasting impact, fostering advocacy, kindness, and true diversity.
